MOUNTAIN DIVISION MOST VALUABLE PATROLLER

To recognize the extraordinary achievements, over a period of time, by a patroller within the CSP Mountain Division. This award recognizes achievement above and beyond the division patroller level, which itself is the highest operating award at the division level. The award is indicative of the sustained efforts of the patroller to enhance and develop the aims and programs of the Canadian Ski Patrol at the division and/or national level.

1 Mike Palamarek Edmonton

MOUNTAIN DIVISION OUTSTANDING ZONE AWARD

To recognize the extraordinary efforts of a zone, over a period of years, in promoting, delivering, expanding and supporting the programs and policies of the national/division organization.

1 Watson Lake Zone

GEORGE ENNIS OUTSTANDING CONTRIBUTION AWARD

To recognize an extraordinary contribution either to the Canadian Ski Patrol from an individual(s) or an organization outside of the Canadian Ski Patrol, or from a patroller(s) to an individual(s) or organization outside of the Canadian Ski Patrol.

SPECIAL RECOGNITION AWARD

Award is presented to members who have made significant and constant contributions to the achievement of division goals and objectives.

1 Mike Cava Edmonton

MOUNTAIN DIVISION LIFE MEMBER AWARD

To recognize important contributions in various functions over a period of at least ten years by a member who has shown dedication beyond normal expectations to the Canadian Ski Patrol. A recipient should have received the highest award available in his/her own zone and hold an NAA and CSP award at the national level. The recipient must have provided leadership or major contributions that have aided the growth of the Canadian Ski Patrol. Life membership is the highest honour the division can bestow on a member or former member.
