

CSP Patient Assessment Evaluation Questions – 2025

Patient Assessment Stages	2025 Patient Assessment Questions
Overall: Patient Assessment	Required Questions:
	What do you want to achieve when you complete your Patient Assessment?
	Why do you think it's important that you understand anatomy and physiology as you do your Patient Assessment?
	During the Patient Assessment, what typical signs or symptoms are you looking and feeling for?
	Answer one of the following questions:
	When examining the chest, what additional signs or symptoms are you looking and feeling for?
	When examining the abdomen, what additional signs or symptoms are you looking and feeling for?
Stage 1: Scene Survey and Communication	Required Questions:
	What do you hope to achieve during the Scene Survey and Communication stage?
	What circumstances would prompt you to immediately request further assistance?
Stage 2: Primary Assessment	Required Question:
	What do you hope to achieve during your Primary Assessment?
	Answer one of the following questions:
	What signs or symptoms would indicate the need for oxygen?
	What does implied consent mean?
	What are the four Levels of Consciousness?
Stage 3: Transportation Decision and Communication	Required Question:
	What are two critical decisions you will make at the Transportation Decision and Communication stage?
	Answer one of the following questions:
	Does your transportation decision always follow your scene survey and primary assessment? Why or why not?
	What would your rationale or criteria be for "stay and treat" vs. "load and go"?
	If EMS is called, is the situation always a Load & Go? Why or why not?
Stage 4: Secondary Assessment	Required Question:
	Why do you bother completing your Secondary Assessment?
	Answer one of the following questions:
	What is PMS?
	Why is proper documentation important?
	Why do you measure sets of vital signs at intervals?